Tasted by Jane Anson, (at Primeur week tastings in Bordeaux, 03 Apr 2017))

One of the hidden treasures of St-Émilion, this Peter Sisseck and Silvio Denz estate is over on the limestone plateau of St Christophe de Bardes, and has delivered something pretty special in 2016. Closed at first, this is muscular and austere until it opens up to reveal stunning tension and complex, persistent layers of violet-scented raspberry and redcurrant fruits pulsing with minerality. Curls of woodsmoke whip things up to the next level and there is a finesse to the tannins that brings it all together. What a potential for this wine.
